Re: Wall extension for Courthouse Security

Tuscola County will be accepting bids on the construction of a extension of the current Security wall in the Courthouse lobby. The following specifications shall be considered in your bid:

1. Contractor is responsible for any needed permits. Contractor shall follow all Building codes during construction.
2. Contractor shall construct the wall with a professional workmanship manner.
3. Contractor shall build a 5 foot long x 8 foot high glass divider wall connected to existing wall, to extend wall to the new metal detector to prevent people going around it.
4. Material to be used shall be Ash wood stained and finished to match as close as possible. Glass is to be matched to existing, and be safety glass. New wall shall look as current wall (style and dimensions) when complete.
5. Wall is to be anchored to the floor as well to current wall to provide sturdiness.
6. Work is to be completed between the hours of 4:30pm to 11pm Monday through Friday.
7. Contractor is to provide protection for existing equipment and furniture during the drilling of the floor.
8. Contractor shall clean up the job site each night, and site shall be made safe for public operations the next day.
9. Contractor shall provide copies of insurance and workman's comp.

All bids must be submitted by 4:30pm April 24th, 2014. Please send bids to Mike Miller 125 W. Lincoln St. Caro, MI 48723.

Any questions please call Mike Miller at 989-672-3756.
